

Performances recorded both live and in session as part of Red, White & You Homecoming 2005. The celebration's signature event • the Jimmy Simmons & Friends concert • welcomed alumni performers and musicians back to campus for a landmark musical evening.

Featured Performers

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 1 Let the Good Times Roll
Sharon Montgomery '75, vocals;
arr. Darrell Holt | 6 Don't Let Around
Much Anymore
Kurt Killion '81, baritone saxophone;
arr. Roger Pemberton (Duke Ellington) | 11 All of Me
Charlie Prause, piano;
arr. Billy Byers (Count Basie) |
| 2 Her Song
Jimmy Simmons, tenor saxophone;
Patrick Williams, music | 7 Muddy Water
Becky Barksdale '84,
vocals and music | 12 When You're Smiling
Don Rollins '83, tenor saxophone;
Ray Gonzales, trumpet |
| 3 Autumn Leaves
Jim Boone '64, '74 alto saxophone;
arr. Darrell Holt (Composed by Joseph Kosma) | 8 Stormy Monday
John Calderon '98, vocals;
arr. Darrell Holt | 13 Stetini Sentimental Over You
Travis Harris '90, trombone;
(Tommy Dorsey) |
| 4 There Will Never Be Another You
Wayne Dyess, trombone; arr. Tim
McMillen (Harry Warren) | 9 Beautiful Love
Travis Harris '90, trombone; Paul
McKee, music (Victor Young) | 14 In the Still of the Night
Billy McQueen (LU music major), drums; arr. Patrick Williams
(Cole Porter) |
| 5 I Got It Bad and That
 Ain't Good
Sharon Montgomery '75, vocals;
Jim Boone '64, '74, alto saxophone;
arranged by Darrell Holt
(Duke Ellington) | 10 Just for a Thrill
John Calderon '98, vocals; arr.
Darrell Holt (Lil Armstrong and Don Raye) | |

Lamar University extends grateful thanks to the alumni musicians and performers who shared their considerable talents with an appreciative audience during the Jimmy Simmons & Friends Concert — the capstone event of Homecoming 2005 — and to those who came to the studio for special session recordings:

President Jimmy Simmons, clarinet, saxophone, piano.

Alumni musicians

Becky Barksdale '84, Los Angeles, Calif., guitar and vocals; Jim Boone '64, '74, Colmesneil, alto saxophone; John Calderon '98, Houston, guitar; Richard Cantu '74, '78, Beaumont, alto saxophone; Travis Harris '90, Dallas, trombone; David Jernigan '90, Beaumont, trombone; David Johnson '93, Beaumont, bass guitar; Kurt Killion '81, Orange, saxophone; Jeff Laird '82, '84, Houston, trumpet; Rusty Lay '85, '88, Jasper, trumpet; Lanny Marshall '99, Kirbyville, trombone; David McArthur '80, '85, Houston, tenor saxophone; Billy McQueen, student, Houston, drums; Sharon Montgomery '75, Houston, vocals; Don Rollins '83, Dickson, Tenn., saxophone; Mike Smith '72, Lumberton, saxophone; Kevin Stone '90, Orange, trumpet; Freddie Titus '83, '86, Beaumont, piano; Donnie Todd '79, Port Neches, trombone; Michael Westbrook '90, Lumberton, trumpet; Daryl Wilson '81, Nederland, drums.

Friends of Jimmy Simmons
"Alumni by choice"

Ray Gonzales, Beaumont, trumpet; Charles Prause, Houston, piano.

Lamar faculty musicians/music coordinators
Wayne Dyess, Nederland, trombone; Raul Ornelas, Beaumont, trumpet.

Special thanks to
Dr. Raul Ornelas
for organizing the musicians for this magnificent concert.

Make sure you know about future special events such as this and other opportunities to reminisce with fellow classmates. Become an alumni member.

When you make a donation to the Office of Alumni Affairs, you become a contributing alumni donor and gain additional privileges. Your contribution includes membership in your local area alumni club, eligibility to serve on select councils and committees, library privileges, invitations to special events, access to recreational facilities and discounts to local and national merchants. Your support makes possible programs that reunite alumni and strengthen the connection we all have to Lamar University.

(409) 880-8921 • (800) 298-4839

www.lamar.edu/alumni