

LAMAR THEATRE SUMMER WORKSHOP

June 15-19, 2009

The Lamar Theatre Summer Workshop is for students who are interested in learning more about acting, playwriting and technical production within a week-long plan of study.

The workshop is divided into two separate groups:

1. Students entering grades 9-12. This group of students will be housed for the week in Cardinal Village so that more intensive work with them can be done during the week.
2. Students entering grades 6-8. This group of students will be classified as the day campers. They will work from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day.

A typical day with either group will include classes in:

Acting (divided into beginning and advanced)
Playwriting
Lighting
Makeup
Costumes
Puppetry
Scenic Construction

All classes are taught by Lamar Theatre professors and graduate and undergraduate students. Each student will also be cast in a one-act play to be presented on the final day of workshop for parents and friends. The workshop is very fast-paced and requires a lot of the students and their involvement in it each day.
