

Biographic Sketch

Cheng-Hsien Lin was born in Taipei Taiwan. He received his M.A. from San Diego State University and Ph.D. in Criminology and Social Psychology from Texas A&M University in 2003. He received the Best Graduate Student Award of 1997 while he graduated from San Diego State University. He was on the faculty of Texas A&M University – Kingsville, System Center-San Antonio before he joined Lamar University in 2003. He has taught: Criminological Theories, Research Methods, Introduction to Criminal Justice (Criminology), Organized Crime, Violence, Domestic Violence, Juvenile Delinquency, Deviant Behavior, Sociology of Family, and White-Collar Crime. He has published several research papers in areas of adolescence, psychological well-beings and methodology. He received “San Antonio’s Top Professors” Award for his dedication in teaching from Magazine of Scene in SA Monthly in December 2006. His research has generated more than 20 papers presented at sociological and criminological conferences. Furthermore, he served as a journal reviewer for Journal of Adolescence and Journal of Survey Research since 2004. He has received a number of competitive research grants.